RE: Approval of Parenting Act Education Course

This letter is to confirm that your Basic Level Online course has been approved by the State Court Administrator's Office for providing parenting education to court-referred individuals.

The following criteria were used to approve your application:

- Provider Information and Request for Approval Sheet
- Educational Objectives Table
- Provider Guideline Compliance Statement
- Letters of Reference

This approval by the State Court Administrator is for the period of March 23, 2016 through December 31, 2016. Please check the Nebraska Supreme Court website to ensure the information you submitted is listed correctly (<http://supremecourt.ne.gov/parenting-act-providers>)

In order to keep the parenting education provider website information as accurate as possible, please let this office know of any changes to your contact information or if you decide to no longer provide parent education classes.

Your efforts to provide education to parents and children during this difficult transitioning time are appreciated.

If you have any questions, contact Rachel Lempka, State Court Administrator's Office, at 402-471-3148, rachel.lempka@nebraska.gov or at the address below.

Sincerely,
